APRIL 22, 2018 | WORSHIP 9 A.M. AND 11 A.M.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Order of Service for Worship

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

Please remember to silence electronic devices.

We do, however, welcome the sound of children in worship.

They are full participants in our worship life.

A great place for children to see, hear and participate is close to the front.

Please rise in body or in spirit.*

PRELUDE – Impromptu No. 3 in G-flat

Franz Schubert

*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Trees reach up to the sky, seeking the sun and air.

All: We lift our hands to God our creator.

One: Roots dig down into the earth, seeking water and food.

All: We open our hearts to Christ, the living water.

One: Flowers open to the warming breezes of spring.

All: We welcome the Holy Spirit, by whose touch the fruit of our lives is born. Let us worship God.

*OPENING HYMN 35 – Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty

Tune: Lobe den Herren

*PRAYER OF PRAISE

All: Creation knows to praise you, O God, for you are the life behind all life. Your breath warms the earth. Your voice coaxes out the shoots. Your fingers uncurl the leaves. When the tombs of earth and of death seemed closed, you opened them by your love. All praise be to you for the life which conquers death. For this Easter gift we adore you. Amen.

RESPONSE OF PRAISE

Tune: Hymn to Joy

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to God on high;
Alleluia to the Savior who has gained the victory;
Alleluia to the Spirit, fount of love and sanctity!
Alleluia, alleluia to the triune Majesty!

PASSING OF THE PEACE

One: Like stars sewn into the black fabric of night; like the drops on the rocks in the middle of the stream; like the deer at rest in the ray of light breaking through the trees; so is the peace given unto us. The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

While the Passing of the Peace often involves a handshake, this is not a requirement. However you or your nearby worshipers exchange the peace, please do not be offended if someone prefers something other than a handshake.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

All: Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

OFFERING AND ANTHEM – Look at the World

John Rutter

Look at the world, everything all around us:
Look at the world, and marvel every day.
Look at the world: so many joys and wonders,
So many miracles along our way.
Praise to thee, O Lord, for all creation,
Give us thankful hearts, that we may see:
All the gifts we share, and every blessing,
All things come of thee.

ABOUT WORSHIP AT GPMC

Look at the earth bringing forth fruit and flower;
Look at the sky, the sunshine and the rain;
Look at the hills, look at the trees and mountains,
Valley and flowing river, field and plain:

Praise to thee, O Lord...

Think of the spring, think of the warmth of summer
Bringing the harvest before the winter's cold.
Everything grows, everything has a season,
Till it is gathered to the Father's fold:

Praise to thee, O Lord...

Every good gift, all that we need and cherish
Comes from the Lord in token of his love;
We are his hands, stewards of all his bounty;
His is the earth, and his the heavens above:
Praise to thee, O Lord... (John Rutter)

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Choir

*PRESENTATION OF OFFERING

Tune: Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below; alleluia, alleluia!
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

TAKING THE WORD INTO THE WORLD

Flowers for the sanctuary are provided by our members in memory or in honor of a loved one. If interested in providing flowers, please contact Sandy Brucker: 313.886.5317 or e-mail: sandybrucker@yahoo.com.

The chancel flowers are given in loving memory of Leslie A. Sanders, by his family, Sylvia, Kirk and Laura.

The colorful cutout figures around the communion table will be there throughout the season of Easter. They were made by children of the El Cerro community in Cuba and by our children. The figures have prayer joys and concerns of the children written upon them. They are intertwined as a symbol of our interconnected lives and the mutual story of love and grace that we have in Jesus Christ. Please join us in praying for all of God's children.

If you are looking for a little hearing assistance on Sunday mornings, we have a new hearing assistance system. It includes a new and improved basic ear piece for people who just want a little boost to the sound. We also have a special neck lanyard for people with inductive hearing aids (also called telefoil aids), as well as a special pack and cord for Bluetooth hearing aids. Not sure what kind of hearing aid you have? Try to find out, it will help us help you. These devices, pieces and lanyards are on the piano toward the front of the sanctuary. You can ask an usher for assistance.

Please list your email address on the fellowship pad at the end of the pew if you would like to receive our weekly email time-sensitive updates, subscribe to our Twitter feed: GPMCNews.

Cassette tapes and CDs of our worship services are available the week following the service. Please request copies at the reception desk.

Looking to go green? The wireless network in the Sanctuary is "gpmchurch" and the password is bibles@gpmchurch. The address for the bulletin <http://www.gpmchurch.org/pdf-files/bulletin.pdf>

Join us in the 3rd floor youth lounge for a great night. We will continue to meet through May 22. Even as spring sports kick into gear, you are welcome to join us whenever you can make it. All are welcome!

Costa Rica: There is a large yellow trash can behind the wooden fence to the right of the back entrance to the church for bottles and cans. Alyssa Czech is responsible for the collections. The youth are also able to pick up your returnables from your house. Please contact Sarah Godbehere at 313.882.5330 or sgodbehere@gpmchurch.org to schedule a pick up. Thank you in advance for your contribution!

Rent-a-Youth is back! The youth at GPMC are here to help with babysitting, housecleaning, gardening & outdoor work, pets, tutoring, heavy lifting, painting, office work, errands, and odds and ends. Brochures are available at the reception desk. The minimum donation is $10 per hour, and the money raised will support kids going on the youth mission trip to Costa Rica in June.

Downtown Disciples Redux! GPMC is offering a new midday Bible study and you don't have to leave your desk/screen to be part of it. Using the application Zoom, join Peter Henry for a Bible study on the second Wednesday of each month from 12:15 - 1:00 p.m. To sign up and get information for Zoom, contact Peter Henry. We will meet again on May 9.

Downtown Disciples has returned. We meet the second Thursday of each month at Fort Street Presbyterian Church from 12:15 - 1:00 p.m. Join other members and friends as we feed body and spirit.

The Novel as Theology meets on Wednesday, April 25. Our novel this month is This is How it Always Is, by Laurie Frankel. We meet at the home of Shawn and Peter Henry. Conversation starts at 7:30 p.m. and we conclude by 9 p.m.

You asked and we're providing. Our Year of the Bible check-ins have now been expanded. Join Peter Henry or Susan Mozena on the first and third Sundays of each month as we read through our Year of the Bible. We meet in the Second Floor Lounge at 10:15 a.m. for informal conversation about our readings. You can pick up Year of the Bible reading lists in the first floor information racks and Reception Area. Our next check-in will be May 6 in the second floor lounge.

MUSIC

On Sunday, April 29, our adult choir will present a Festival of Hymns during both morning services. "Sing to the Lord a New Song" is the theme of this year's festival; it is a phrase that opens several of the Psalms. A hymn festival is a celebration of the joy that can be found in the singing of hymns. These services present a variety of congregational song, both new and old. Instead of a traditional sermon, Minister of Music James Biery will tell interesting stories about each song that we sing together. Join us at either 9:00 a.m. or 11:00 a.m. on April 29.

FELLOWSHIP

Young Adult Fellowship (YAF) meets on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month at 7:30 p.m. at Atwater in the Park on Kercheval. Our next meeting will be April 26. All are welcome!

The 50+ Minglers have changed their name! We're now called The Single Minglers. We're finalizing the date for our next get-together. Don't forget to check the upcoming bulletins for details. We're always looking for new ideas and suggestions, so feel free to reach out to Cheryl Gauss (cherrealtr@aol.com; 313.920.7059) or Carol Koepplin (carolzells@ymail.com; 586.215.5228) with any questions or comments.

The Men's Ecumenical Breakfast group is made up of men from over fourteen places of worship that meet on Friday mornings, September through May, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church for fellowship and program. All are welcome to attend! We serve a continental style breakfast, have a presentation/program that is followed by a short Q & A period. All meetings are held at GPMC in Fellowship Hall. Cost of the Friday breakfast is $7.00 ea. First time visitors are free! Registration is not required. On April 27 the guest speaker will be Sam Buchanan, Captain of J. W. Westcott II, Pilot and US Postal Service mail boat.

OUTREACH

The Hunger Offering for April will go to Church World Services through the CROP Walk. CWS has a mission to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, heal the sick, comfort the aged, shelter the homeless. They provide assistance to refugees, disaster relief and hunger relief worldwide. Your donations through our hunger offering will be matched, up to $2,000, by the Outreach Council.

Hunger Offerings: The Outreach Council selects twelve local organizations every year as Hunger Offering recipients, but you decide how much each one will receive. How? Every dollar you contribute during the month goes directly to that highlighted partner. Bonus: the Outreach Council will match that donation, up to $2,000 per month. Together, these donations add up fast. In the first quarter we sent $3,083 to Gleaners Food Bank, $5,825 to The Second Mile Center and $4,582 to the Kids Coalition Against Hunger (Outreach also directed additional funds to bring the work day to GPMC). In the second quarter we will support Church World Services through the local CROP Walk, the Everyone Eats program at Spirit of Hope and the Open Door Program at Fort Street Presbyterian. Thank you for your contributions to all these organizations.

It's that time of year again - for spring cleaning and clearing out the garage. If you happen upon a bike that your family has outgrown, please consider donating it to the United Community Family Services organization.

Support refugee children by giving them a way to exercise their bodies and lift their spirits. We will be collecting bikes today at GPMC between services from 10:00 am to 11:30 am at the garage on Trinity Terrace. If you need to make other arrangements for drop off, please contact Naomi at naomiyoshida@uls.net. If necessary, the Yoshidas can arrange to pick up the bikes if drop off is not possible. Helmets and bike locks are needed and welcome. They may be dropped off in the coat room in the church lobby. All donations must be in by the end of today, April 22nd.

The Village of East Harbor - The Outreach Council has planned a tour and lunch of The Village of East Harbor on Saturday, April 28 for members and friends of GPMC. We've reserved the church van for our visit and will car pool if needed. The Village of East Harbor is a Presbyterian Village of Michigan (PVM) facility, located in Chesterfield, MI. We'll gather at GPMC at 10:00 a.m. and plan to arrive at The Village of East Harbor by 11:00 a.m.. After the tour of their facility we'll enjoy a complimentary lunch. After lunch, we'll return to GPMC by 2:00 p.m. If you'd like to join us for the event, reserve your spot by calling the church 313.882.5330 or email Steve Voorhees at captaingadget@comcast.net.

CROP Walk, Sunday, May 6, 1-2 pm. Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church (211 Moross Rd.) is hosting the annual Eastside CROP Hunger Walk. We will start and finish there - you choose approximately a 1 or 3 mile walk. We would love to have 20 (or more) walkers from GPMC. To be a walker, get a pledge envelope in Fellowship Hall during middle hour (or email Sue Acton for one). Get pledges from other church members, your family, your neighbors, and invite them to join you on the walk. The CROP Walk is an ecumenical program of Church World Services. 25% of the proceeds address local hunger. 75% will help end hunger around the world. It promises to be a beautiful Sunday made more beautiful by helping a worthy cause. Please join us!

Crossroads Lunch, Sunday May 13. We are hosting a special Mother's Day lunch: sloppy Joes, potato salad, and all the accompaniments, to feed the hungry at the Crossroads location at 2424 West Grand Blvd. We are looking for people who will honor their mother by helping others that day. One group will meet at the church to carpool at 8:00 a.m. You set up the meal from 8:30 to 11:30. The other group will arrive at the church at 11:00 am to carpool. You serve the meal from 11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Want to join us? Sign up at the desk in the lobby or email Debbie Voorhees dsvoorhees@comcast.net or Sue Stanley, Stanles@dearbornschools.org. It is great fellowship and a wonderful service to Crossroads, a social service outreach agency with two locations in Detroit. Founded in 1971, Crossroads provides emergency assistance, advocacy, and counseling to anyone in need.

DIVERSITY

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is continuing an Easter journey with Hartford Memorial Baptist Church. Our two congregations are doing two Bible studies culminating in a fellowship dinner on Sunday night, April 29. Each of our the Bible studies will pair music from our own backgrounds (Presbyterian and Baptist) with Scripture. Today's study pairs the African-American spiritual "Every Time I Feel the Spirit" with Matthew 17: 1-9. Join us in Barbour Chapel at 10:10 a.m. for 20 minutes as we study these two texts.

Interfaith Leadership Council has planned a visit to the Muslim Unity Center (1830 W. Square Lake Rd., Bloomfield Hills) on April 26 from 6:00 - 8:30 p.m. All are welcome to come and explore the many attributes and fundamentals of prayer in the Muslim faith. A light dinner will be served. Please register at Wendy.IFLC@gmail.com or 313.338.9777. Meet at GPMC at 5:00 p.m. if you would like to carpool.

GPMC has been invited to join members of Hartford Memorial Baptist Church for a dinner and fellowship event on Sunday, April 29 from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. The dinner will be at Hartford Memorial (near Outer Drive and the Lodge), and we will have carpools leaving from GPMC. RSVP to Donna Hartzell and indicate if you need a ride to Hartford Memorial.

GPMC members have been invited to an intimate interfaith evening at the Muslim Unity Center in Bloomfield Hills on Thursday May 3. We will be joining members of the Muslim Unity Center and Temple Beth-El (a Jewish congregation) for dinner and conversation. The event is designed for 30 or so people total. Please RSVP to Donna Hartzell (dhartzell@gpmchurch.org). More details to follow.

Our Diversity Book Group meets again on Sunday June 10 from 6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. on Trinity Terrace. We are reading Just Mercy: a Story of Justice and Compassion by Bryan Stevenson. Join us as Stevenson takes us into the American justice system as seen through his eyes as a lawyer and the founder of the Equal Justice Initiative. This group, led by Chelsea Gilbert and Deb Voorhees, meets quarterly and reads non-fiction books that help us learn more about individuals and communities other than our own.

AND MORE

Attention GPMC Dogs: would you like to help keep Trinity Terrace free of geese? Would you like to make that beautiful area cleaner for our children? Consider exercising at GPMC. Trinity Terrace is free most afternoons, beginning at noon. We ask that your owner pick up a key at the Reception Desk so we know who is out there. Also, we need to make sure that any dog waste is picked up after each visit. Starting April 23, just have your owner swing by whenever you want to enjoy Trinity Terrace and help us scare the geese away.

An Overview: Autism Spectrum Disorder with April Ceno of Training & Treatment Innovations on Wednesday, April 25, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. at GPMC. Although 1 in 68 children are diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder, there are still myths and misconceptions about what Autism really is. This workshop will examine those myths and misconceptions, define Autism and talk about the impacts on the individual, family and community. It is designed for anyone interested in learning more about Autism Spectrum Disorder. Contact The Family Center to register for this free program. 313.447.1374.

The wellbeing of our children is undoubtedly a priority. Yet at a time when national statistics indicate that one in every five teens has some type of mental health problem in any given year, and suicide is the third leading cause of death among teens, worry and questions about securing the wellbeing of adolescents can occupy our thoughts. If you're interested in learning more about the symptoms of depression in adolescence and/or seeking resources available for families, consider joining Dr. Michele Ondersma during middle hour on April 29. Michele will facilitate a follow-up conversation and show a 22-minute video about helping a friend who is depressed or suicidal (Date yet to be determined). Bring your teen along! Michele is a GPMC member and licensed clinical psychologist.

Members and friends of GPMC are invited to a special event at Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church on Sunday, April 29, at 5 p.m. JAPC will be celebrating the installation of The Rev. Matt Nickel, formerly a member of GPMC and a fan favorite in our congregation, as their new pastor. The church is located at 8625 East Jefferson, corner of Burns. We have (guarded) parking behind the church. There will be a reception following the service. Questions? Please call 313.822.3456.

Calling all artists! GPMC welcomes the Rev. Lisle Gwynn Garrity the weekend of May 12 and 13 to lead a workshop (Saturday) and join us in worship (Sunday) as we lift up the place of the arts in the community of faith. Lisle is a painter and pastor and works with artists of all ages in designing and creating art for the worshiping life of the community. Her Saturday retreat/workshop will include creating banners for worship at GPMC. Artists under the age of 8 should have a parent present. The $15 fee for the workshop will help cover the cost of lunch and some of the supplies. Saturday's studio experience will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. RSVP with Donna Hartzell (dhartzell@gpmchurch.org) if you plan to join us. This event is open to non-GPMC artists, too. For more about Lisle, go to <http://www.lislegwynngarrity.com/>

College intern needed! GPMC is seeking a college-aged intern for our youth program this summer. We are able to offer a small stipend for this position. The intern will plan and lead monthly social and service events during the summer, coordinate final logistics for the Mission Trip, prepare the itinerary for the Mystery Trip, review curriculum for Bible studies, and plan the fall youth calendar. Applications are available outside the CE Office, and will be accepted until May 15. Come explore church leadership and develop skills in communication, events coordination, and teaching!

Recovery Eucharist is for members and friends who are part of the addiction recovery community. Whether you are on that road yourself or accompanying a loved one, we have something to support you along the way. Our next Recovery Eucharist meeting will be May 2. We meet the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of each month from 7-8 p.m. This bi-weekly meeting will include time for sharing, support, prayer and communion.

Many of you have asked about supporting the ministries of Dr. Ajit and Daisy Prasadam through the India Sunday School Union. If you would like to make a donation to their ministry- so vital at a time when Christianity is suffering marginalization in India right now- you can write a check to GPMC and note that it is for ISSU (India Sunday School Union). $25 will pay for one volume of their life-changing curriculum in a regional language.

STEWARDSHIP

What do 100,000 people in the Grosse Pointes, Southeast Michigan and around the world have in common? They have been touched by the ministries of GPMC in 2018. We have received $383,000 in undesignated gifts this year. This financial support, added to the gifts of time and talent shared weekly, changes lives. Homeless neighbors at Cass Community Services, Presbyterians in Honduras, community groups like Alcoholics Anonymous, and the families of the six children baptized at GPMC in 2018 (with 3 more in April!) are all part of the reason we are a church where members are engaged in Purposeful Giving. Thank you!

PRAYING FOR OTHERS

The congregation and staff of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church believe that prayer is very important. If you would like to add a person to our prayers, please call Carol Marks 313-882-5330 ex. 127 or e-mail her at cmarks@gpmchurch.org. May God continue to surround you with love and care.
