

GROSSE POINTE MEMORIAL CHURCH

“A light by the lakeshore”

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)

AUGUST 20, 2017 | WORSHIP 8:30 A.M. AND 10:30 A.M.

11TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked as Christ's own forever, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is created by God to worship the Lord and serve his people.

Sharing God's love and caring for God's people, we call disciples of all ages to put faith into action by worshiping God joyfully,
welcoming others graciously,
supporting one another lovingly, and serving all faithfully.

WORSHIP AT GPMC

WELCOME TO GROSSE POINTE MEMORIAL CHURCH

We are a member of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and one of its growing congregations. As a multi-generational community of faith, we are pleased to offer a host of ministries that respond to the varied interests of our members and friends. We give thanks to God that you joined us today and we pray you will receive a sense of God's loving Spirit from your time with us. No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

Outdoor Summer Worship at GPMC

Welcome to Trinity Terrace. In addition to Sunday morning worship, we also hold weddings, funerals, and numerous recreational events on the Terrace. Here are some things you may want to know about our worship here at our "light by the lakeshore."

Bathroom and Water Fountain: There is a bathroom in our garage. Just go in the double doors on the lakeside of the garage and turn right. A water fountain is on that same side of the garage.

Biblical Plant Garden: On either side of the large sliding gate is a small garden created by Ken and Kate Kamman. Each of the plants in the garden is mentioned in the Bible or has theological significance. Some of these plants are heirlooms from a similar garden created by Ken's grandmother at her church in Detroit.

Chairs: Many of our worshipers fold up their chairs and take them to the racks by the garage following the worship services. This is not a requirement. Worshipers should only do this if they are confident of their strength and balance. There are always members and friends who will get your chair for you.

Childcare: There is a crib and toddler room with professional and volunteer caregivers available from 8:15 - 11:30 a.m. These rooms are located inside the doors closest to the lake. Enter through the doors, go up the small flight steps, go through the next door and turn right. Beepers are available to alert parents should their children require their attention.

Coffee, Juice and Cups: Worshipers are invited to stay for coffee, lemonade, and conversation following the service. Our coffee is organic, shade-grown, fairly traded coffee from Equal Exchange.com. The cups are all made from recycled or bio-materials and they are compostable.

Communion: We receive communion twice a month, on the first and third Sundays of the month. Visitors are welcome to take communion regardless of denominational affiliation. The bread is all gluten-free and the juice is non-alcoholic.

Dogs: Some members and friends bring their dogs to worship. We do not encourage this as a regular practice. Please be mindful of those who are scared of dogs and allergic to them. Dogs should be kept on leashes at all times.

Dress: While worshipers are always welcome to wear whatever they feel is appropriate to worship, the summer is a time when many members and friends take the opportunity to dress down. Shorts and sandals are popular at our services, while ties and sportcoats are few and far between.

Gathering Hymn: Throughout the summer we sing one of our hymns as people gather for worship, around 8:25 a.m. We remain seated during this hymn as we greet arriving worshipers with our music.

Growing with God: Immediately following the children's sermon, children age three and older are invited to come to the garden for a lesson and to help tend the vegetable garden. The produce harvested from this garden is given to local food pantries and soup kitchens. Once worship is over, parents are asked to come down to the garden to pick up their children.

Living Communion Table: Inspired by the spirit of our worship space and by the image of God's bountiful grace, our communion table is a "living table." Watch it grow over the summer, a reminder of God's goodness toward us.

Offerings: Offering envelopes are in the fellowship pads that are passed down the row during worship. We also welcome fresh fruit and vegetables from home gardens and add these to what the children grow. Simply place your produce on the communion table before, during or after worship.

Transportation: Members and friends are encouraged to walk, run, scooter, or swim to worship to reduce our collective carbon footprint. Bikes can be parked in the spots closest to Trinity Terrace, marked off by orange cones.

Ushers: If you are willing to help usher (hand out bulletins and collect the offering) on a particular Sunday or whenever needed, please contact Denise Champion denise50333@yahoo.com.

ABOUT WORSHIP AT GPMC

Children are always welcome in worship at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. An infant and toddler room (room 101) is available during the services should you prefer to leave your child with our wonderful caregivers. In the sanctuary feel free to use the glider rocker located underneath the side balcony at any time during the worship service with your child.

Worship kits for children to use during worship are in blue bags located at each of the entrances to the Terrace and Sanctuary. Listening Assisted Devices are available in the sanctuary.

Please list your e-mail address on the fellowship pad at the end of the pew if you would like to receive our weekly email. For time-sensitive updates, subscribe to our Twitter feed: GPMCNews.

Cassette tapes and CDs of our worship services are available the week following the service. Please request copies at the reception desk. You may also watch or listen to sermons at gpmchurch.org.

Looking to go green? Like your personal device? GPMC now has a mobile site to bookmark on your iPad, Kindle, or any other handheld device. Power it up when you get into the sanctuary, touch your icon, and then call up a PDF of the bulletin. It's that simple. The wireless network in the Sanctuary is "gpmchurch" and the password is "bibles@gpmchurch." The address for the mobile page is gpmchurch.org/main/mobile/

Leading and Assisting in Worship: Rev. Sarah Godbehere, Carol Marks and Lisa Turner, liturgists; Lay Reader: Michael Kopasz (10:30 a.m.); Carol Ambrogio Wood, Soprano and Justin Umbarger, guest organist.

Flowers for the sanctuary are provided by our members in memory or in honor of a loved one. If interested in providing flowers, please contact Sandy Brucker: 313.886.5317 or e-mail: sandybrucker@yahoo.com.

You don't have to be a literary genius, theological expert or regular to join us. Come one time, when you can or every time. Our September novel is Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale. Our October 25 novel is Home Fire: A Novel by Kamila Shamsie.

Middle Hour– Join Sarah during Middle Hour at 9:30 a.m. on Trinity Terrace, as she shares tidbits that didn't make it into today's sermon.

Young Adult Fellowship (YAF) has started and we are looking for other young adults. Join other people in their 20s and 30s as we talk about life and faith on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month. Our next meeting is on Thursday, August 24 at 7:30 p.m. at Atwater in the Park on Kercheval.

Rent-a-Youth! The youth at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church are here to help you with things you don't have time to do or need help with. They are willing to help with Babysitting, Housecleaning, Outdoor Cleanup, Pets, Tutoring, Heavy Lifting, Painting, Office Work, and Odds and Ends. Call 313.882.5330 or pick up a brochure at church for more information.

OUTREACH

Back to school means back-to-school supplies. We are looking for someone to help with supplies for our 5th grade student from the Ivory Coast. If you are willing to make a trip to Staples, Office Depot, etc. and pick up supplies; or if you are willing to supply a gift card to Staples ($75), please contact Sue Acton. She has the list or will get the card to someone who will shop for our family.

The August Hunger Offering goes to Cass Community Social Services in Detroit, which is dedicated to making a profound difference in the lives of the diverse populations it serves by providing for basic needs in innovative ways. They provide food, shelter, affordable housing, health services and jobs. Several years ago, Cass introduced the Rotating Shelter, with area churches providing overnight accommodations to about 40 men and women. They run an innovative division for vocational training and employment opportunities and introduced Tiny Homes, a way for homeless men and women to work toward home ownership. Please give generously. The Outreach council will match gifts up to $2,000.

MUSIC

The GPMC Music Department is excited to announce a new scholarship program for high-school age singers. The purpose of the program is to encourage and educate high-school age singers, and to welcome those singers to participate in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church adult choir. Students are invited to apply each semester for awards in the amount of $400 each; the funds will be applied to their private voice lessons at their high school or at the church. A maximum of four awards will be granted, and awards will be paid directly to the voice teachers. Each recipient will be expected to participate in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church adult choir. Allowance will be made for a specified number of excused absences to accommodate high school choral program activities and personal emergencies. Recipients may be of any faith tradition and need not be members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Applicants may attend any high school, public or private, but must be active participants in their school vocal music program. For an application form, contact Donna Hartzell at 313-882.5330 or dhartzell@gpmchurch.org or visit the church website at gpmchurch.org

STEWARDSHIP

A big thank you to everyone who has made a financial gift to GPMC this year. Strong giving helps to keep up with our Session approved, faith-based budget. Year-to-date (YTD), through July, we have received just under $700,000 in pledges and gifts. This has resulted in a mild surplus even with giving 2% below budgeted expectations. Making and fulfilling financial commitments, no matter how large or small, helps sustain our life together, providing the ministries, programming and outreach that empower our work as a "light by the lakeshore."

AND MORE

Summer is winding down, and students and teachers are heading back to school soon. All of our elementary students and any of our educators are invited to bring their backpacks, satchels, etc. to worship on Sunday, September 17. We are going to have a Blessing of the Backpacks at all three services, including a small gift/token for you to put on your backpack. It will be a small reminder that God goes everywhere with you, including the classroom.

Your preachers need help writing our sermons! Join us on Monday mornings from 10-11 a.m. for the Preacher's Workshop. GPMC members, friends and the preacher for the week will sit down and read through the upcoming biblical text. No biblical expertise required. Everyone is at the same beginning place every week. The Preacher's Workshop resumes on Monday, September 25.

September 10th is probably already marked on your calendar as Peter's first Sunday back from sabbatical as well as the beginning of our "regular" schedule of indoor services. It's also the day of our Fall Kick-Off Brunch, a continental breakfast that will be served in Fellowship Hall between the 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. service. We're all looking forward to seeing faces we might not have seen during the summer and gathering for a light meal and fellowship. As with all of the Parish Life events, there is no charge for this. Come one and all!

Yoga is for everyone. The yoga class the church hosts every Tuesday and Thursday at 10:00 a.m. is open to all ages. We encourage everyone to come to class. It doesn't matter what your age is, nor your experience level. Everyone is welcome to these community classes. You do not have to be a member of the church to attend. Please help us to spread the word. Yoga is good for everyone - body, mind and spirit. $5.00 per class.

Exploring Our Religious Landscapes is beginning the fall series on Comparative Christianity. At each event, dinner is served followed by a brief lecture program about their faith, a tour of their facility and a Q & A session. Each event runs from 6 - 9 p.m.

The series explores:

*Catholicism (St. Joseph Catholic Church); Aug 30

*Presbyterianism (Littlefield Presbyterian Church); Sept. 14

*Non-denominational Evangelical (Kensington Church); Oct. 17

*Unitarian Universalist (Birmingham Unitarian Church); Nov. 16.

Cost for the four-part series is $95 (includes dinner, program and textbook). You may register for individual faith(s) at $30 each which covers the dinner and program only. A textbook can be purchased separately for $25. The church van will be available for these events. We will car pool from the church as needed. Please e-mail Steve Voorhees at captainadget@comcast.net or call Steve at 313.570.3151 to reserve your spot for these events. Checks received by Julie McCrea at GPMC will confirm your spot.

The Knitting and Sewing Group will not be meeting on August 22. The group will resume on Tuesday, August 29.

On Sunday, September 10 we look forward to welcoming back Peter Henry from his summer sabbatical. Please continue to keep Peter and his family in your prayers during these final weeks of summer. We hope everyone will be able to join us on this exciting day.

729 Lord, I Want to Be a Christian

1 Lord, I want to be a Chris-tian in my heart, in my heart;
 2 Lord, I want to be more lov - ing in my heart, in my heart;
 3 Lord, I want to be more ho - ly in my heart, in my heart;
 4 Lord, I want to be like Je - sus in my heart, in my heart;

Lord, I want to be a Chris-tian in my heart.
 Lord, I want to be more lov - ing in my heart.
 Lord, I want to be more ho - ly in my heart.
 Lord, I want to be like Je - sus in my heart.

In my heart, in my heart,
 In my heart, in my heart,

Lord, I want to be a Chris-tian in my heart.
 Lord, I want to be more lov - ing in my heart.
 Lord, I want to be more ho - ly in my heart.
 Lord, I want to be like Je - sus in my heart.

Through its recurring phrase, "in my heart," this poignant African American spiritual expresses the desire that our professed faith will not be superficial or hypocritical but will permeate the very center of our being, so that we may truly be the people God calls us to be.⁴

435 There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

1 There's a wide - ness in God's mer - cy, like the wide - ness faith - ful, we would glad - ly trust God's Word, and our lives re - where earth's fail - ings have such kind - ly judg - ment given.

 flect thanks - giv - ing for the good - ness of our Lord.

These stanzas, excerpted from quite a few more, offer a reminder that the model for our dealings with others should be God's generosity rather than limited human tolerance. The text is effectively set to a broad and sturdy Dutch folk melody, probably from the 17th century.

As was his custom, the author wrote this hymn to accompany his sermon on 1 Chronicles 17:16-17, preached on January 1, 1773; he called it "Faith's Review and Expectation." Much of its current popularity comes from this now-familiar tune, an association that began in 1835.
