

Young Children and Worship

At Grosse Pointe Memorial Church

What is Young Children and Worship?

YCW is a worship experience for young children. Biblical stories are told through storytelling using wooden figures and other materials creating an environment that cultivates the imagination.

Who attends Young Children and Worship?

Children age 3 thru 2nd grade

When does Young Children and Worship meet?

Every Sunday morning during the 9 o'clock service. Families are encouraged bring their children to the sanctuary first to participate in the beginning of worship and then the children will be excused to room 200 with the Worship Leaders.
